FRASER HILL FARM®

Boxwood Ball Topiary Collection

Make a statement with this Boxwood topiary ball in a black pot from Fraser Hill Farm. Featuring lifelike foliage and all-metal structure for strength and durability, this modern topiary is specially crafted using the finest materials to look realistic and provide you with many seasons of use and enjoyment. The boxwood leaves are constructed from non-allergenic and flame-retardant materials then painted multiple hues of green so no two are exactly alike.

Together these details create the look of a natural shrub that requires hardly any maintenance. If you love a classic boxwood but do not want the maintenance, this is for you. Simply turn on and display - no clipping or watering required!!
