CARDINAL

A special mix for Cardinals, featuring Golden Safflower.

Cardinals are America's favorite backyard bird. The male's brilliant plumage and loud, slurred whistles attract attention and admiration. Northern Cardinals often visit feeders in pairs, making it easy to observe courtship, feeding and other bonding behavior. On a cold, snowy day a yard full of cardinals is the essence of winter.

Lyric Cardinal Mix is formulated with the cardinal's feeding habits and nutritional needs in mind. Independent testing confirms that cardinals relish each of the seeds. Frequently, cardinals and other large-billed birds will toss aside smaller seeds as they search for sunflower. Our large-seed mix is ideal for them. It will eliminate the wasted seed common in more conventional mixes. Another benefit is squirrels don't like safflower. There is more seed left for the birds to eat when you use safflower.

Golden Safflower is an organic, chemical-free hybrid safflower. It has higher nutrition content than white safflower: 15% more oil, 25% higher protein, and 30% higher fat. Golden Safflower has an extremely thin hull making it easier for birds to eat and digest.

Lyric Cardinal Mix will attract and feed these colorful songbirds:

Cardinals

Chickadees

Grosbeaks

Jays

And more!

Is there a "best" feeder for Lyric Cardinal Mix?

Cardinals and other similar-sized birds prefer feeding on platforms or traditional hopper style feeders. Though these birds can master using tube style feeders, the perches on most tubes are intentionally made short to discourage use by larger birds. Therefore, we recommend a platform feeder or hopper style feeder. Placing the feeder in a relatively open area in the yard will increase the likelihood of cardinal visits.
