Enjoy comfortable warmth anywhere in your home with the San Jose 58-inch fireplace entertainment stand. This model is packed with convenient features like 10-color flame effect, 9-hour timer, flame only mode, and a remote control. Apart from being a stylish media stand, it also brings the cozy ambiance of a natural fireplace to your home without all the smoke, mess, and maintenance. The mantel top can accommodate flat panel TVs up to a 55-inches, while the A/V shelves underneath house additional media components.

The electric fireplace insert produces 5,115 BTUs of fan-forced heat that can quickly heat a 300 sq. ft. room. An enchanting flame display dances across the back of the firebox, creating movement that is sure to catch your eye. Embers of LED light dance across the driftwood logs within, adding color and warmth to your entertainment room. The fireplace settings can be adjusted at the push of a button from across the room with the convenient remote control provided. The flames can be set to display with or without heat, making it perfect for use throughout the year.
