

Lucky Dog Indulge Bowls

LUCKY DOG®

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- What makes Lucky Dog Indulge Series Dog Bowls different than other dog bowls?
 - Our bowls are engineered to withstand abuse and come with an industry-best limited lifetime warranty. Our bowl sizes stack within each other, allowing for easier storage and transportation. Indulge Dog Bowls feature a tapered side profile to make it easier to hold, especially if the bowl is full. If you own a large dog, check out our Indulge XL bowl, which holds 12.5 cups of food or 100 oz. of water!
- What is the warranty on the Indulge Dog Bowl?
 - All Indulge Dog Bowls come with an industry-best limited lifetime warranty. For more information, please visit our warranty information page.
- Are the Indulge bowls food-safe and BPA-free?
 - Yes! Our bowls are made from food-grade 304 stainless steel and are 100% BPA-free.
- How much food or water fits inside the Indulge Dog Bowls?
 - The Indulge 5 holds 5 cups of food and 40 oz. of water. The Indulge 8 holds 8 cups of food and 64 oz. of water. The Indulge XL holds 12.5 cups of food and 100 oz. of water.
- How do I clean the Indulge Dog Bowl?
 - Indulge Dog Bowls are dishwasher safe. You can use soap, dish soap, or mild detergent. Please do not use bleach or abrasive cleaners. You can also hose it off, wash it in the river, or just wipe it off with a moist napkin or towel.
- Why is there a taper on the side profile of the Indulge Dog Bowls?
 - The side profile taper makes the bowls easier to hold, especially when it's full. It also allows the various sizes to nest within each other.
- How do I stack the bowls?
 - The various sizes of bowls nest within each other. In other words, the Indulge 5 (40 oz. version) can be placed inside the Indulge 8 (64 oz. version), which can also be placed inside the Indulge XL (100 oz. version). This makes the bowls easy to store and travel with.
- Are these bowls insulated to keep water cool?
 - Although the bowls are double-wall stainless steel, the surface area of the opening will overcome any methods of insulation. Thus, they are not considered insulated.
- Do you offer a lid for the bowls?
 - Due to the design, a lid will not be watertight and could cause accidental spills. Therefore, we do not offer a lid for this product.
- Is the rubber ring removable?
 - It is not removable and removing the ring is not required for cleaning.
- Can I use these bowls in the microwave?
 - No. These bowls are not microwave safe. Do not place any metal products in the microwave.
- What are the sizes and weights of the various bowls?
 - Indulge 5 Dog Bowl: 40 oz. or 2.5 lbs.
 - Indulge 8 Dog Bowl: 64 oz. or 4 lbs.
 - Indulge XL Dog Bowl: 100 oz. or 6.25 lbs.
- How do you warranty the Indulge Dog Bowls?
 - Please contact the Jewett Cameron Company customer service department.
