

How to Plant Tulips

1. Choose a location in full to partial sun and dig a hole 3-4" deep.

2. Set the bulbs firmly in place, 5" apart, with the pointed ends facing upward.

3. Cover the bulbs with soil and water thoroughly.

