

OUR QUALITY GUARANTEE

Little Griddle has been crafting professional-quality stainless steel outdoor cookware for grilling enthusiasts around the world since 2000. We are always working to make our products useful, durable, and beautiful. When you purchase cookware from Little Griddle, you are buying a product that has been designed, produced, and tested to provide cooking enjoyment for years to come.

Our stainless steel griddles are designed to provide dependable, delicious results every time that you use them. We are confident that you will love your Little Griddle outdoor cookware, and we guarantee it with a Limited Lifetime Warranty against manufacturing defects.

Limited Lifetime Warranty: In the unlikely event that you experience a problem or defect related to the manufacturing of your griddle, you may contact us at any time for a replacement.

Terms and Conditions: This Limited Lifetime Warranty applies to Little Griddle stainless steel cookware, when the product is used as directed according to the product Care and Use Guide, and it applies to the materials and construction of the cookware. Overheating or abuse of the griddle may cause metal distortion or warping, which is not covered by this warranty. United Global Sourcing, Inc. (“UGS”) supports and recommends the outdoor-only use of this stainless steel griddle. UGS does not support, warrant or recommend the use of stainless steel Little Griddle grill-top griddles indoors. Both griddle and food contents from cooking are HOT when in use – exercise caution in operation. Never leave the product unsupervised when in use. Do not allow unsupervised children or pets near the product when in use. In the event that warranty service is required, UGS will replace any defective cookware with items of equal or greater value, at its sole discretion, upon the return and inspection of defective cookware. For more information or to request warranty service contact UGS using the contact information below.
