TIPS FOR GETTING THE MOST OUT OF YOUR WATER COOLER

- Store with latches undone to prevent stretching
- Make sure the spout is fully tightened
- Convert to a 20-quart cooler easily by unscrewing the spout and screwing in the included drain cap. Do not overtighten.
