

G-FLOOR® TRAILER STOP & READ

INSTALLATION

The substrate on which the G-Floor® trailer flooring is going to be laid should be smooth, clean, and dry. For wood subfloors, any seams should be sanded smooth, even and level. This will prevent the seam from being visible when the flooring is installed. Your new G-Floor trailer flooring should be acclimated in a temperature-controlled area for 12-24 hours prior to installation. The steps below are general recommendations for a standard installation on a wood subfloor. For other subfloors, or any special considerations, please contact customer service by email at CustomerService@BLTLLC.com or by phone at 877-810-6444.

1. Unroll the material in the trailer so that it is straight.
2. Trim to fit the layout of the trailer. Remove any excess material so the flooring lays completely flat.
3. Lift material on one side lengthwise (from side to side, not front to back) and fold it in half. Expose substrate on one side of trailer so that adhesive can be applied.
4. Apply adhesive, completely covering the exposed subfloor. Follow all recommendations from adhesive manufacturer when applying adhesive.
5. Carefully roll the floor back into place atop the adhesive. DO NOT flop the material back into place. This could lead to air being trapped under flooring resulting in additional work later in the installation.
6. Using a 100 lb. roller, work from the center to the edge on the adhered portion of flooring. This will ensure the adhesive spreads evenly and removes any air pockets.
7. Repeat steps for the other half of the floor.
8. Once the entire floor is adhered, roll again with a 100 lb. roller from center to edges.
9. Allow adhesive to dry. Consult adhesive pail or adhesive manufacturer for cure times.
10. Seal any exposed seams, including those along the edges to prevent moisture from penetrating under the floor and affecting the adhesive.
11. If desired, install edging trim to create a finished look.

CLEANING & CARE

Surface is easily washed with mild soap and water. Never leave harsh detergents or chemicals on the flooring. Certain cleaners may cause the surface to become slippery. The flooring is not a stain-proof product – certain dyes, inks, rubber tires, and chemicals may cause permanent staining. Some non-permanent stains can be removed with spray-on Brake and Tool Cleaner, without damaging the flooring. This can be found in many auto parts stores; however, the use of Brake and Tool Cleaner may cause discoloration. Always test in an inconspicuous location of the flooring. Never use harsh chemicals such as tar remover or kerosene on this product.
