The Voorhies Outdoor Products RTT48-3 Feral Hog Trap is just the thing you need to help rid your land of any feral hog problems. This live hog trap offers a great balance of strength and portability. This feral hog trap is strong enough to hold the largest hogs, yet light enough to be loaded and unloaded by one person. It fits easily into the bed of a truck. The multi-catch hog trap has three individual root type doors that offer simple, efficient and continuous trapping with no trip wires to set. The portable hog trap allows you to relocate quickly as the hogs move on your property.
